The Pastor's Corner

This week we reach the pinnacle of Holy Week – the resurrection of Jesus Christ! One can only imagine the devastation that Good Friday brought Jesus' remaining followers. Having witnessed His miraculous power and life-changing teaching for three years, they had become convinced that He was indeed the Messiah. However, with that belief came a preconception that God would not let the Messiah suffer or die. With that misconception clearly disproven, they are shattered, and for the most part, fearful that they might be next to suffer the ire of the Sadducees. It is into this emotional despair that Jesus arises from His tomb to reveal God's eternal plan for the reconciliation of Himself to humanity. Sunday's message will be a message of hope to all people of the world! God is not angry with you. He has given us His Son that we might be restored to right relationship and fellowship with Him. Who else but God would dare to do such a thing? Join us this Sunday at all our normal times and places as we celebrate the anniversary of the miracle of the empty tomb and our risen Lord!

Van Drivers Needed

Our ministry partners at Sagrada Bible Camp (Lincoln, MO) have requested help transporting kids in our area to and from camp. This camp is 100% free and is specifically for kids who qualify for the Angel Tree program that we partner with at Christmas time. We are looking for two adults per trip (one driver, one navigator) to use the church van to drive kids to camp at the beginning of the week and bring them back at the end. Please let us know if you can go on July 7 & 11 by calling the church office, 417-847-2965.

Family Dedication

Sunday, May 11

This is a time for parents to publicly dedicate their child(ren) to the Lord. This is making a commitment to raise the child in the ways of the Lord and direct the child toward a relationship with Christ. If your family would like to participate, register in the church office by May 4. If you have questions, contact Rebecca by calling 417-847-2965 or online at www.fbccassville.org.

A Note from the Mission Committee

If you're reading this, you likely know the story—the gospel. And if it has changed your life, you know it's no ordinary story. It's not just the best-selling book or the most influential writing in history. It is TRUTH—The TRUTH.

In a world where "living your truth" is celebrated, there's never been a greater need for the Truth. And this week—Holy Week—we celebrate the very heart of that Truth: the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ.

The gospel isn't just something that happened. It's something that happens—every day—as Jesus continues to change lives, offer hope and invite us into mission. We're not just spectators of this story; we're participants. Jesus calls us to share the Truth, not just overseas, but across the street, at the ballfield and in our schools and workplaces.

Mission work—local, national, or global—is simply the overflow of a heart changed by Jesus. We're not offering religion. We're offering relationship with the One who saves.

So as we reflect on the cross and rejoice in the empty tomb, let Easter reignite your passion to live and share the gospel. We carry a message worth sharing, a hope worth holding onto and a Savior worth following.

Let's live the Truth. Let's tell the Truth. The world needs to hear it.
