The Pastor’s Corner

This week we will look at the Old Testament character of Mephibosheth. “M” as I will refer to him for the remainder of this article was the son of David’s best friend Jonathan and the grandson of King Saul. He is a minor player in the Bible and to be honest his story is as much about King David as it is about M. He does, however, give us a platform to discuss some amazing biblical principles, which we will do. M was the last heir apparent to Saul’s throne and could have spelled trouble for David; but, because of a covenant between M’s father Jonathan and David, David elects to keep that vow even though there is personal risk to do so. This is a tender and touching story and I hope you can be here as we dig into the very short tale of Mephibosheth. See you Sunday.

A Note from the Pastor

It is Sunday afternoon and I have just written my Pastor’s Corner article for this week. I use the date to name my articles because it forces me to look at the calendar and realize what the date is. I just commented to Zack, “Where has June gone?” Where has 2025 gone? Why am I talking about this? Because our church year ends on August 31, our new year begins on September 1 and this will be here in the blink of an eye. With the new church year or around that time, we will begin our second term of our Discipleship Pathway. The first term was great! I would never have imagined we would have as many classes and as many people participating as we did. More importantly, a fantastic percentage of the participants faithfully attended and finished the term. Most of those have already signed up to continue their studies in the second term. For those of you who could not finish or weren’t able to participate at all, there is good news – all of the introductory classes we began last January will be back in August! Zack has put together a curriculum guide for the next four years or so. Each term will introduce new options as well as providing entry points for new participants. My earnest prayer is that this will become an essential part of our educational ministry as we consciously and systematically commit ourselves to becoming better equipped disciples of Jesus!

PLEASE prayerfully consider signing up to be a part of this second term of our Discipleship Pathway.

Matthew 28:19-20, “Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age.”

Allow Jesus to make a disciple out of you.

Pastor James
