New Sermon Series This Sunday!

The Pastor's Corner

This week, we begin a four-week sermon series titled God Never Said That. For our first sermon of this series, I will preach on one of my pet peeves: "God will never give us more than we can handle."

Have you ever been going through something really hard and someone—well-meaning, kind, probably a Christian trying to help—looked at you and said, "Just remember, God will never give you more than you can handle"? My response to this horrible theology is to say, "Oh, really? Have you ever read Job?"

This week, however, we will be looking at the apostle Paul. Paul was such an amazing apostle that we can easily overlook his real-life struggles. I hope you can be here this week as we begin God Never Said That.

First Steps Class

There will be a First Steps Class for kids who have recently made a decision to follow Christ or are close to doing so. The class will be on Sunday mornings during the month of September (6, 13, 20 and 27) at 9:30 a.m. in Room 307. We ask that at least one adult attends with the child.

Church Office Closed

In observance of Labor Day, there will be no evening activities on Sunday, September 6 and the church office and Family Life Center will be closed on Monday, September 7.
